

Sapienta Country Analysis Cyprus

Comprehensive monthly analysis of politics, economic policy and the economy

About Sapienta Country Analysis Cyprus

Sapienta Country Analysis Cyprus provides monthly, independent, comprehensive but concise analysis of domestic and international politics, fiscal and structural policy, and macroeconomic and sectoral trends including natural gas.

The reports are written by Fiona Mullen, an analyst with 20 years' experience producing clear, reliable and independent analysis for an international audience. Mullen was the economy adviser to the UN Good Offices mission in Cyprus from 2008 until early 2016 and is a former Senior Analyst at the Economist Intelligence Unit.

We pride ourselves on going one step further and being more up to date than the rest. Sapienta Economics rigorously tests common assumptions and provides enlightenment on today's hot issues. A recent sample of Sapienta Country Analysis Cyprus can be found under Country Analysis section of the website <https://sapientaeconomics.com>

Sapienta Economics and Fiona Mullen are independent, with no political ties in Cyprus or abroad and no investment in Cyprus shares or bonds.

Standard sections

- Overview
- Political analysis and outlook
- Structural reforms and natural gas
- Fiscal performance and forecast
- Banking sector
- Macroeconomic trends and forecasts
- Tables and charts

Special diplomatic offer

The special diplomatic offer, open to embassies and multilateral institutions, comes with three options.

- 55% DISCOUNT PLUS FREE BRIEFINGS: The standard with additional briefings every two months. Normal price without briefings: €1900 + VAT. Embassy price WITH free briefings: €850 (VAT exempt).
- FOUR ISSUES PER YEAR: Bearing in mind limited budgets, embassies are being offered the exclusive option of receiving the report four times per year in March, June, September and December. These issues, produced at the end of the month, will typically include the full breakdown of national accounts (GDP). Embassy price: €280 (VAT exempt).
- SINGLE ISSUE: €195 + VAT. A popular option for those with specific reports to write: take advantage of our single-issue offer. Embassy price €85 + VAT (no VAT paperwork required).

Contact

fiona.mullen@sapientaeconomics.com, Tel +357 99 338 224, www.sapientaeconomics.com